

4 things ticks don't want you to know...

They can now be found in many areas across Canada.

They start looking for a blood meal at 4°C.

They can transmit diseases - like Lyme disease - by feeding on pets and people.

The best time to start protecting your pet is BEFORE exposure.

MARCH IS NATIONAL TICK AWARENESS MONTH

#TickAwarenessMonth

Talk to us about tick control measures today!